mentale, e che non si può non tener conto del fatto che l'atto di lettura è un atto di partecipazione attiva. Non si tratta di un'attività passiva, ma di un'attività che richiede una certa dose di impegno e di sforzo. E' per questo che la lettura deve essere insegnata, e non lasciata alla spontaneità del bambino. L'insegnamento della lettura deve essere graduale e progressivo, e deve tener conto delle diverse fasi dello sviluppo della lingua e della scrittura. In particolare, è importante che il bambino impari a riconoscere i suoni e le lettere, e che impari a collegare i suoni alle lettere. Solo in questo modo potrà imparare a leggere e a scrivere in modo corretto e sicuro.
